FIRM IN THE FIRST HOUR.

The Stock Market Then Weakens and Becomes Irregular.

The Lack of Outside Interest a Check on General Conditions-Room Trading Constitutes the Bulk of the Day's Dealings - Money Easy.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.-There was no material alteration today in stock market conditions. Genuine outside interest was again largely suspended and such price movements as resulted from the the ventuces of the purely speculative element. The absence of genuine liquidation deterred that class from aggressive operations on the short side, and, in fact, made them rather disposed to reduce short contracts.
On the other hand, commission houses ngain reported an other absence of outside interest in the market one way or the other. A common query in Wall street nowadays is us to where stocks are lodged, or in other words, who is holding the securities with which Wall Street formerly used to play. Some light may be thrown on this subject by a glauce over the list of accurities devised by a cit-izen of the State of New Jersey who left the holk of his property to the Metropolican Museum of Art. It will be seen from the schidules that this unconspicuous midiomaire was the holder of a large amount of rallway shares, both active and inactive, and not on margin. To put it in another way, Wall Street falls, as it has done for a number of years, to if has done for a number of years, to recognize the enormous increase in the wealth of the country.

The annual returns of the country's great times of randwar were an attest to the fact that in simple worth "they are making moutey" to an extent far beyond the experiations of the men who only a few years ago were engaged in scaling down their fixed charges. down their fixed charges, assessing the corporate equities in the properties, and, generally speaking, treating these issues as if they had no more than a merely contingent value, if indeed any at all. The present period to Wall Street is one of comparative quiet, and marker movements are governed almost wholly by sechnical trading circumstances. It is evident, at all events, from the earnings of the milways, that there is little or no diminution in the distribution were now being the milways, that there is little or no diminution in the distribution of commodities, it may be said, of course, that such gains in sealings as are now being benefit of cannot be militial of interest with the course, that such gains is an extensive an expensive of the same are now being benefit of cannot be militial of interest policy. It was not the fire people conceived it was possible that the earnings of last year and the year before could be exceeded.

The stock market opened firm, and continued so until the close of the first hour after which irregular tendencies developed. London sent in a lower range of prices for American stocks and was a seller on balance to a small extent, but apparently the dealings were governed exclusively by local considerations. Note of the stocks recently conspicuous in the trading occupied a prominent position. Brooklyn Rapid Transit was one of the active features of the market and apparently found some support at today's low, level. Yesterday afternoon's late reports of a very heavy bond lastic on the company's elevated lines were altogether unsubstantiated. The United States Steel issues fluctuated only moderately, and northing cive of interest took place among the industrials save for a moderate inspired processes and the found of the suckars were scored in Consolidated Gas and Glucose Sugar. Nothing requiring comming decline in business conditions is usually veck, and other sharp declines were scored in Consolidated Gas and Glucose Sugar. Nothing requiring the advent of closer monetary conditions, it is seen most improvable that any importations of gold need be looked for immediately from Europe.

There was a continuance of the general lownward tendency in the industrial list esterday, two or three new securities in his group joining the siready well-de-ned movement. Toward the end of the ined movement. Toward the end of the session the pursistent selling of the stocks had a mirked effect on the railway list as well and at the close the net losses for the day were very general. The market was extremely dull for the most part, however, oring to the yacht race party, and in such a market it is not safe to say that the small movements made are indicative of anything in particular. It is not to be denied, however, that the many recent breaks in the industrials and the fullure of the railway securities to do more than hold their own fairly well have caused some uncasiness everywhere, and even some approach to patic among small holders of stocks. A sharp break of three or four points may be the result of these conditions during the next two or three days.

hard for such a break and with one me, of a little selling of long stock by disgusted or frightened holders they may not have much trouble in causing it. The attitude of the large inside interests will determine the matter. If they show the same apparent indifference that they have exhibited freetily it would seem entirely likely that a lower level will be seen. If on the other hand they show, the slightest inclination to support the market the bears will be likely to retreat in a hurry and a raily may occur at rest in a hurry and a raily may occur at rest time. These are the technical market conditions, ulmost entirely apart from the intrinsic conditions. What the weakness of the industrials and the post statements put out by a number of these companies may mean as to acreal business conditions, in a large wes fremains to be seen.
